Emergenetics™ Introduction

Our speaker today is Tanis Roeder (ro-der), owner of Elevate Your Communication. Tanis is a native of Fort Collins, Colorado, and earned her Speech Communication degree at Colorado State University.

Tanis is passionate about communication, especially when it comes to helping teams improve their communication with each other and their clients. She has been teaching communication workshops for over a decade and is here today to share our Emergenetics Profiles with us! These profiles will give us insight into how we all prefer to think and behave.

Learning about the Emergenetics principles will help all of us elevate our communication, increase our sales, and deepen our relationships.

Please help me welcome our Red and Yellow brained 3rd 3rd 3rd workshop facilitator, Tanis.
